Philips Lighting opens its Finance Services Center in Symetris Business Park in Łódź

Łódź, Poland – Philips Lighting (Euronext: LIGHT), the world leader in lighting today announced that it has officially opened its new Finance Services Center in Łódź.

The new office space in Symetris Business Park is located at Piłsudski Avenue. During the event, representatives of city authorities and local media had a chance to take part in a guided tour through the new office.

“We have chosen this new office space thinking of the comfort of our employees. Symetris Business Park is well connected, easy to access and very modern. Together with an exciting working environment and chill out areas, it will fully meet our standards in terms of location, comfort and superb working place, we believe that our employees will enjoy working here,” said Lion Paauwe, Director of Philips Lighting’s Finance Services Center in Lodz.

The Polish city of Łódź is a strategic location for its European finance, accounting, and procurement processes. The center is multicultural and employs more than 60 people from many different nationalities.

“The new location provides a vibrant workplace to our team. We continuously search for talents and have recently begun to recruit for the Centers of Excellence for Financial Planning and Analysis. To grow our team in Łódź we recruit highly educated, multilingual and analytical people who are open to pursue their career in a dynamic and international environment,” Paauwe added.
