1. About these Terms. These terms and conditions (these “Terms”) apply to the purchase and sale of products through Philips Hue website or Philips Hue app (collectively, the “Site”) for delivery in the United States. These Terms are subject to change by the above-referenced Signify Entity (“Signify”) without prior written notice at any time, in Signify’s sole discretion. Any changes to these Terms will only be applicable to orders made after such changes. You should review these Terms prior to purchasing any product that are available through the Site.

You should carefully review Signify’s Privacy Notice before placing an order for products through this Site (see Section 10).

For Philips Hue products, your access and use of software embedded in such products, your access and use of the app to be downloaded to your smartphone or tablet, and services and features accessible for such products through the Site are on the terms and conditions of the applicable Terms of Use of the Philips Hue product (as available via the app).

2. Placing your order. When you place an order, a valid, binding and enforceable contract governed by these Terms is created between you and Signify. Signify will send you an email acknowledging receipt of your order with your order number and details of the items you have ordered.

While Signify will make every effort to supply you with the products listed on Signify’s order confirmation, there may be occasions where Signify is unable to supply the products because, for example, (i) such products are no longer being manufactured or are out of stock or not currently available, (ii) Signify is unable to source relevant components or (iii) there was a pricing error. In such circumstances Signify will contact you and may suggest alternative products that you might wish to purchase (at the same or different price). In the event of a pricing error, Signify will communicate the correct price to you. If you do not accept Signify’s proposed substitution or the price modification, then Signify will cancel the order and refund any money that you may have paid to Signify in respect of the order.

3. Prices. All prices, discounts, and promotions posted on the Site are subject to change without notice. Prices are in local currency. The price charged for a product will be the price in effect at the time the order is placed and will be set out in your invoice. Price increases will only apply to orders placed after such changes. For residents of the European Union, value added tax is included in the listed product price. However, prices may not include other applicable local taxes or duties such as applicable state sales tax for residents of the United States, or charges for shipping. All such taxes and charges will be added to your merchandise total and will be itemized in your shopping cart prior to purchase and in your order confirmation email. Signify strives to display accurate price information, however Signify may, on occasion, make inadvertent typographical errors, inaccuracies or omissions related to pricing and availability. Signify reserves the right to correct any errors, inaccuracies, or omissions at any time. If paying by credit card, the total amount for your entire order will be reflected on your statement in your local currency.

4. Paying for your products.

Terms of payment are within Signify's sole discretion and, unless otherwise agreed by Signify in writing, payment must be received by Signify at the time you place your order. You may pay for your products by the methods of payment as may be provided as payment options during checkout. You represent and warrant that (i) the credit card information you supply to Signify is true, correct and complete, (ii) you are duly authorized to use such credit card for the purchase, (iii) charges incurred by you will be honored by your credit card company, and (iv) you will pay charges incurred by you at the posted prices as described in Section 3, above.

For any product that is sold by Signify that is not subject to an applicable Standard Product Warranty, Signify warrants that for two (2) years from delivery to you the product's hardware components will be free from any defect in material or workmanship which causes the product to fail to operate substantially when used as directed and in accordance with the specifications provided by Signify, with consideration given to the overall performance of the product and based on up to 3 hours average working time per day/7 days per week. You acknowledge and agree that certain functionality of the products may rely upon the availability and correct functioning of third-party manufacturers and service providers, including connectivity and communication devices and services from providers and mobile operators. These are outside of Signify's control and Signify has no responsibility or liability for performance (or lack thereof) of such third party services or devices.

8. Our Liability. Nothing in these Terms shall limit or exclude Signify's liability for death or personal injury caused by Signify's gross negligence, willful misconduct or for fraud.
